Our Story

Jenkins originally opened in Athens, TN on May 5, 1988, and remained open through 1996. After an absence of 12 years, the family reopened the restaurant in the same location in July 2008. Our goal has always been to offer the same service, food quality, and community involvement which we have offered at our Cleveland location since 1976. Jenkins has been recognized by National Geographic, Southern Living, TripAdvisor, Garden & Gun's Magazine, and many local and regional publications for outstanding cuisine, hospitality, and community engagement. Our customers and community partners are our best advertising as they spread the word that Jenkins is one of their favorite places to eat.

When in Cleveland, TN visit our sister store centrally located on Spring Creek Boulevard. Both locations promise a warm welcome and comfortable but unique dining experience. Our walls are covered with decades of memorabilia to make your dining experience feel like taking a trip back in time. Be sure to walk around the restaurant to browse the antiques, local photos, and sports memorabilia.

We offer a 10% discount to all first responders, senior citizens and current college students.
